

Prague Visitor Centre

Address:

Nerudova 25, 118 00 Praha 1-Malá Strana

Website:

www.praguevisitor.eu

Summary:

The Prague Visitor Centre is part of the 'Prague Visitor' magazine offices. Situated on the road leading up to the castle it is virtually next door to Fringe venue 'Golden Key'.

This is an empty space with no lights or sound. The audience can be seated in any way, can lie on the floor or walk around.

This venue is suitable for non-conventional performances, performance art, talks, poetry or anything that just uses an empty space.

Seating/ Standing

30. Approx 20 lying. The venue can supply chairs but nothing else.

Stage Dimensions

The room is 6.15 x 7.90m with windows on two sided. There is no stage available. The windows do not have curtains or shutters so daylight will come in until approx. 22:00

Access

4/5 steps up into main building. After that flat within space

Audience Entrance

As access. There is only one entrance to this venue. The audience come to a reception area where coffee is available, then through an antechamber and into the space.

Dressing Rooms

None.

Toilets

Shared with audience.

Walls

White plastered. There are ways to hang paintings. It is difficult to hang anything from the ceiling.

Floor

Wooden.

Please note that this venue must be returned to its clean state immediately after each performance and is not suitable for shows that use liquids or make a mess.

Sound

Nothing!

Lighting (tbc)

Conventional office lights hung from ceiling. Simple on/off switch. Please note that there are no shutters or curtains on the windows. During the festival darkness does not fall until approx. 22:00

Storage

Limited storage in offices.

This space will work wonderfully for the right performances but please do not consider it if your production need theatrical devises such as lighting, sound or darkness.

Venue Photos:

More photos available at:

<https://drive.google.com/open?id=0B4LaZ1IM6qtub3paUEVFNHdaajQ>

Looking from entrance

Looking to entrance (entrance on R, store behind curtain on L)

Ceiling with Lights

Prague Youth Theatre with end on seating

Venue floor plan:

Visitor Centre

Multi Purpose Spae

